Those who read the lists of persons who vere overcome by the heat during the July hot stell will remember the name of Sarah Perkins, which figured quite prominently. At one time she was overcome by the heat on Pennsylvania avenue, and about a week later she fell with a stroke of paralysis on the same avenue. Yesterday she was found in the street a lunatic and locked up at the Fifth precinct station.

Two notorious colored thieves, named James Johnson, better known as "Slew Foot," and Charles Lee, went on a thieving expedi-tion Friday night, and, after stealing a carpet from Mr. Richard Reeder, living on New York avenue, near Fifth street, entered Dr. Nailor's stable and borrowed a set of harness. Sergeant Johnson and Officers Marr and Saffell, of the Sixth precinct, recovered the carpet Saturday and arrested the two thieves. About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Officers Kellum and Dailey, hearing a disturbance in Louse alley, proceeded to investigate matters, and found a number of the inhabitants in that locality engaged in a drunken brawl, "raising Ned" generally. The officers made a raid upon them, arresting John Willis, Joseph Cheney, Jonas Diggs and Emma Show, and took them to the First precinct station, where they were held for a hearing this morning. Several of the parties made good their escape.

there might be much outpouring of honest in-dignation for what we feel has been unjust persecution; but I believe that to-night we should rise higher than personal invective in answering personal attack. And so, knowing the large vindication of you, sir, by the arbit-rament of the President and the Senate of the United States, we rest in the full confidence that the country indorsed the nomination by the one and the confirmation by the other.

There are around me here to-night reprebut it has performed its grateful mission, and, like all ephemera, the glories thereof have faded away. But in their stead comes "the feast of reason and the flow of soul." In this, my friends, I find my chief joy. The notes of friendship are now peculiarly grateful to my ear, and challenge the emotions of a sympathetic heart. [Applause.]

In looking over the array of familiar faces that grace this genial company I can only regard this as a family gathering, where heart beats to heart as face answers to face in the water. In such an hour and upon such an occasion the conventionalities and formalities of more public meetings should be laid aside.

We meet as co-laborers, friends and brothers who are linked together by a common interest, a common vocation, and who are actuated by a community of feeling and purpose.

I cannot regard this friendly demonstration as the outgrowth of the business relations which have existed between us for so many years. I accept them as the emanation of a higher and holier feeling. None of you, gen-

the printed matter that issues from the Gov

the responsibilities which relate to our dutie and success.

And here let me refer to the proof-reader

[cheers,] whose delicate duties and responsi-bilities are of a peculiar order. I say it, and I do so without the fear of just contradiction, that the proof-readers connected with the national printing-house of this country find fe-equals and no superiors in any establishment of the kind on the globe. [Applause.] This is not uttered in a spirit of flattery, but as a learly-established fact, which is sustained by the testimony of eminent, experienced and cal-tivated talent. Yours, gentlemen, is an unusual and delicate responsibility. In all other relations in life it is considered sufficient for men to correct their own errors, but it seems to fall to your mission to correct those of others; no matter how great their magnitude.

Blow after blow was aimed at my repubanquet to their honored chief. At 8 o'clock the company began to assemble in the Pometation as an officer and citizen, but the shafts fell harmless. Party hatred, like vaulting ambition, is liable to overleap itself. The very crowning act of the contest—that which was predicted as certain to lead to my downroy pariors of the Arlington hotel, and it was not many minutes later when the guests were marshaled into the capacious dining-hall and seated at the tables, which were arranged in the form of a cross and highly ornamented fall—the repeal of an obnoxious law—returned to plague the inventors. Ben. nated and the Senate (being in accord with his views of right) confirmed me to fill the va-cancy that occurred under the law that was Perley Poore, Father Gobright, of the Associated Press, and representatives of the Star intended to be my executioner, and thus MY TRIUMPH WAS RENDERED COMPLETE. But enough of this. I must pay my respects was one of more than ordinary intellectual cato you, gentlemen, who have honored me with this mark of your respect and esteem. To you and your fidelity to duty I am largely indebted pacity in appearance, and the entertainment was remarkable for its quiet and unostentatious character. There was no boisterous and for whatever of success has attended my duunseemly outbursts of conviviality, but a genties and labors as the head of that branch of the public service to which you relate. I prize your good opinions above all things else except the jewel of every man's existence—personal eral prevalence of cheerful discussion, both of the viands, provided in great abundance by mine host, and of those subjects which ordi-narily employ the minds of men who are intent honor. This mark of your respect will be cherished in the casket of memory among the most delightful and valued incidents of my public or private career.

Having already intrenched too far and too on being happy themselves and conferring ong upon the enjoyments of this delightful lour, I must close. If I have wearied your patience, forgive the transgression, and I will cease by expressing the fervent hope that each claret, sherry and champagne, of the best brands and choicest vintage, and the whole was served in the complete and impressive style which obtains at the Arlington. and all of us now present may escape the troubles and trials of partisan investigations and persecutions, and that your future may guide you into the paths of peace, prosperity guite you into the paths of peace, prosperity and happiness. [Long continued applause.] When quiet was once more restored Mr. Stitt proposed "The United States Semate," and called upon Major Ben Perley Poore to respond. No brief report can do justice to the witty and inimitable speech of the "chief of the Indian Hills." His remarks were bubbling over with humor, and kept the company convulsed with laurehter. His allusions to the deputed to make a little friendly communica-tion to the gentleman who sat upon his right, (the honored guest, Hon. A. M. Clapp,) and

The near approach of midnight, and the indisposition to encreach upon the holy time of disposition to encreach upon the holy time of the Sabbath, caused the omission of several regular and volunteer toasts, and the last and best, "Woman, Lovely Woman," was given, and appropriately, as well as quite touchingly, responded to by Mr. R. W. Claxton: At 12 o'clock the company passed around the head of table, and each took formal personal leave of their guest. As the members of the company separated they joined in three hearty cheers for the Public Printer, and three more for ex-Governor Shepherd, and declared that they had just concluded the happiest en-tertainment of their lives.

PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE. Why the Pavement is not Begun. In our afternoon cotemporary of Saturday an item in regard to the paving of Pennsylvania avenue appeared which is apt to mislead the business men and property-holders thereon, and, in order that the true state of the case may be thoroughly understood, a representative of THE REPUBLICAN has obtained the following facts, which may be relied upon as entirely correct. The work having been awarded to the two paving companies-the Neuchatel and the Grahamite-contracts were entered into with them by the Avenue paving commission, bearing date August 19, 1876 and providing that thirty days would be allowed the companies to prepare for their work, and providing further that they should not be gin work until the Avenue railroad track had been brought to the grade prescribed by the Avenue commission, which duty was imposed upon the railroad company. This corporation was also notified that the commission would fix the several grades itself, which, when com pieted, would be made known to the proper officers, in order that the track might be set. In order to facilitate the fixing of the grades, Surveyor Forsyth, at the request of the engl neer of the District, prepared an elaborate plat of the Avenue, which Generals Wright and Gilmore took in hand themselves, and personally fixed the levels and grades of the track They concluded their labors a few days since and notified the railroad company thereof The contractors for the company immediately commenced work at Fifteenth street and at Sixth street, in order to make ready for th paving companies. By this showing it will be seen that the paving companies are by no means responsible for the seeming delay. Mr. Williams, whose ability as a contractor is thoroughly well known, was secured by the Neuchatel Company to do their work. No 'purchase" of contract was made, and the Scuchatel Company, by their contract with

COMING GUESTS.

The Dublin and Cambridge Crews. a As announced Saturday morning, the Aus losian club were successful in their efforts to have two of the foreign crews which have been engaged in the rowing on the Schuykill come to this ci'y. The Dublin and Cambridge (First Trinity) crews have accepted their invitation. The Analostan boys have mapped out a week or more of excellent entertalnment, and, it is said, that there will be several private entertaluments in honor of the visiting oursmen. Messrs. Mosher and Postal, of the Analostan club, left last night for Philadelphia for the purpose of accompanying the crews to this city. They will arrive tonorrow, and one crew will be quartered at the Arlington and the other at Willard's.

It is expected that by Thursday a regatta can be arranged so that the two visiting crews will pull against each other. There crews will pull against each other. There will be other races made up from crews belonging to the club. The Dublin crew is composed of G. H. Ferguson, bow; C. B. Barrington, 2; Croker Barrington, 3, and Geo. E. Hickson, stroke. The Cambridge crew is made up of A. Jameson, bow; W. B. Close, 2; G. L. N. Mann, 3, and S. J. T. Penrose, stroke. The crew was very supportunate in stroke. This crew was very unfortunate in Philadelphia on account of the sickness of their captain, Mr. Close.

The Police Veterans.

Today week will be the fifteenth anniver sary of the organization of the Metropolitan police force of this District. It has been cus tomary with the veterans to celebrate the day in a becoming and appropriate manner, but this year, owing to the reduction of the pay of the officers and the withholding of the salar intended to be paid, the men find themselves heavily embarrassed, and the celebration will probably be on a primitive scale. The old force consisted of one hundred and fifty men, and of that number there are now only the following members of the force: Captain Brock, Chief Detective Clarvoe, Lieutenants Vernon, Gessford, Nãocaan, Hurley, Greer, Skippon, Eckloff and Kelly; Sergeants Pearce and Mil-stead, and Privates Drill, Sebastian, Riley, Jones, Cameron, Findley and A. Brown. All these were sworn in as privates with the exthese were sworn in as privates with the exception of Capt. Brock, who was sworn in as a roundsman, and Lieut. Kelly, who was swor in as a sergeant. Six of the ancient private low on the force are on duty in the Third (Georgetown) precinct.

Art Notes.

Several of our resident artists have returned from their summer's sketching tours, and have commenced work in their studios. Among them, Mr. E. F. Miller, at his studio over Galt's, is engaged in filling a large number of orders for portraits. One order, lately received, is for five portraits of Lieut. Riley late of the 10th U. S. cavalry, killed in the Custer massacre. Of these two are to be paintings in oil, two crayons and one upor ivory. The only one completed is a life-size crayen, a most beautiful and artistic piece of drawing, and pronounced by the friends of the deceased, who was a Washingtonian, an excellent likeness. In addition to these Mr. Miller has several orders from Chicago to fill, all of which will keep him steadily engaged for some time to come.

J. H. Witt, another of our artists, is at Columbus, Ohio, where he is engaged upon a portrait of our next President, Rutherford B.

Max Weyl's painting, recently finished, of "Great Falls by Moonlight," had scarcely left his easel before it was in the possession of one of our citizens of wealth and taste, who has placed it among his choicest gems. Mr. Weyl is engaged upon several new pictures, which give promise of comparing lavorably with any-thing he has produced. Miss Vinnie Ream is as busy as a bee in her studio, on the Avenue, which has been en-larged and beautified. The cast of the heroic statue of Farragut, for Farragut square, is finished in the nude state, and it will require yet about eighteen months to clothe and com-

You are asked every day, through the columns of newspapers and by your druggist, to use something for dyspepsia and liver complaint that yea know nothing about, and you get discouraged spending mency with but little success. Now, to give you satisfactory proof that Grazur's August Flower will cure you of dyspepsia and liver complaint, with all its effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palgitation of the heart, heartburn, water brash, coming up of food after eating, low Spirits, see, we ask you to go to any druggist in Washington and get a sample bottle of Grazur's August Flowers for 18 cents and try it, or a regular size, for 15 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Uhas Stort's Co., wholesale agents.

THE AMERICAN PROPER No people in the world suffer so much with Dys-pepsia as Americans. Although years of experi-once in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain once in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, ac., yet since the introduction of General's August Flowers we believe there is no case of dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. Thirty thousand dozen soid hast year, without one case of failure reported. Go to any druggist in Washington and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size, 75 cents. Chas. Stort & Co., wholesale agents.

Uss Thurston's Ivony Pearl Tooth Pow-per. A periect dentifrice. Its action on the teeth is specific removes tartar and discoloration, arrests dreay, and keeps them sound, clean and white. It hardens the gums, sweetens the breath, and, containing no acid, canout injure the enamel. Its constant use is recommended to all, but spe-cially to those who, having good teeth, wish to preserve them. Twenty-five and fifty cents per bottle. THOMPSON'S PENADR OPTIME, for dressing the hair. This fine pomade merits special mention. Purely vegetable, its effect is to soften and refine coarse dry hair, imparting to it gloss and beauty. Unlike many preparations for the hair, it cannot injure, but is highly beneficial, equally so to the rich, golden-hued tresses of youth, the darker rhades of middle life, or the silver-streaked locks of age. Twenty-five and fifty cents per bottle.
